NEIT CO-FOUNDER – ANTON BYSTROV

Hi, my name is Anton, and my goal is to make this world a beautiful place with design and animation! I worked in the university, was an entrepreneur and travelled a lot. My personal opinion is that whether you're a start-up or a big corporation, you can have a beautiful face with a soul underneath. Your face is all well-designed marketing products, your soul is a strong will to make this world a better place. And – yes – your face should show that you have a soul. We can help you with that.
